

November 29, 2004

Good Morning!

It is with a delightful joy that I recommend Kingdom Press to any pastor or church that is serious about reaching out to your community with the gospel of Jesus Christ. The address books are an excellent gift for first time visitors, shut-ins, and hospital visits. What a great way to tell people about your church, your beliefs and offer a plan of salvation.

The staff at Kingdom Press worked diligently to meet our expectations regarding the quality of the product as well as the timely delivery. And...we received more books than we had anticipated. It enabled us to give every family in our congregation a personal gift – free of cost – and have plenty on hand for visitors and other community projects.

We are deeply grateful for the personal interest that Kingdom Press showed in our church and her people.

With kindest regards,

Joe E. Edwards