Re: Kingdom Press

Kingdom Press was a pleasure to work with while producing our church's business directory. They were sensitive to our needs and complied with requests quickly and efficiently. We gave the directory to each of our families and to every guest as a gift upon their request. Many of the businesses represented in the directory have reported to me of increased business directly related to the ad placed in the directory. Craig King is a devoted follower of Christ and understands the primary purpose of his role in enriching the kingdom of God. I heartily recommend him and Kingdom Press to your church.
