

Dear Pastor,

Thank you for allowing me to briefly introduce my good friend and co-laborer in Christ, David Hull. I hold David and his wife, Jennifer, in most high regard and I am confident that David can benefit your ministry tremendously by catalyzing the business owners and leaders within your church.

Recently, in response to a new and unique call from the Lord upon his life, David resigned from the executive staff of Woodlands Church to pursue his foremost passion: full-time ministry to the business community. For almost 7 years, David served faithfully and impactfully as Executive Pastor of Small Groups and First Impressions Ministry at Woodlands Church. While on staff here, David identified, recruited, trained and mobilized many hundreds of volunteers to serve in ministry. Due to David's strong business background, he shares a natural affinity with marketplace leaders, entrepreneurs and C-level executives; in fact, a great number of the dedicated business leaders serving at Woodlands Church today are here as a direct result of David's personal investment in their lives.

I have had the privilege of meeting and praying with David along the way as God has clarified in his heart a vision for a ministry to marketplace leaders within the church. I am especially excited that David has joined forces with one of Woodlands Church's ministry partners, Christians in Business. Christians in Business offers strategies and resources to churches that not only connect the business community within the church, but also allow Christian consumers to find the products and services they need –right within their own church family. Woodlands Church has benefitted in a number of ways from our partnership with Christians in Business, and I hope you'll permit David an opportunity to share with you how your church can benefit as well.

Thank you for your grace in allowing me to acquaint you with David Hull, and for receiving my highest endorsement of both David Hull and Christians in Business.

In Christ,

Kerry Shook
